

Put on a Play

This is a fun way to get your organizations message across

Steps:

1. Get Permission

- Make sure you speak with the proper individuals such as your principle or boss to ensure that you can use the school or other facilities for your play

2. Get Volunteers

- Ask friends, family, co-workers and other members of the community for help with the organization of the play and part taking as well

3. Advertise

- Use eye-catching and colourful flyers and put them up and hand them out in popular areas.
- Be sure to include the title of the play, the place and the date

4. Show Time

- Introduce what your play is about and the message behind it
- At the end of your play, speak to the audience about the organization and what it does

Tips:

- Make sure the play has a theme and a message to the students/audience
- Give yourself and helpers plenty of time to practice and advertise in advance
